

July News

Welcome to the Valimex July news & produce newsletter. We see the new season potato harvest start this month, expect the usual blistering when chipping due to the high sugar content. British Gooseberry has arrived, stone fruits are eating fantastic. We also see British Blackberry and blueberries starting. English Pea and Broad Bean are in, Isle of Wight tomatoes are also in full swing. The first flush of Scottish Girolles have arrived. We see the arrival of new season Lancashire Leeks.

Valimex News

This month we have added some new additions to the Valimex catalogue. We now work directly with Shipton Mill and stock their T45 & T55 flours in 25kg sacks. Shipton Mill was founded in 1979 in Gloucestershire, their ethos of working with like-minded farmers who promote bio-diversity who value and seek to look after the soil. We now have Wessex Mill 16kg Pizza & Pasta flour in stock. Another new product on the shelf is Virtue Pinsa Sourdough Flatbread, this incredible flatbread is made in Italy, very simple to finish and takes 5 minutes to heat, now available in packs of 2 /230gm.

Fresh in this month

UK Gooseberry, English Raspberry, English Blueberry and White Peach.

New season Delica Squash, UK Broad Bean, UK Pea in pod, New season Lancashire Cauliflower.

Freshly cut UK Micro leaf, IOW mixed Heritage Tomato, Scottish Girolle Mushroom and new season Lancashire Leeks.
